

Due to the lapse in federal funding and resulting federal government shutdown, NASS cancelled the December Crop Progress and Condition report.