

February 7, 2005

NEW YORK: Below average temperatures with moderate to above normal snow fall totals were recorded across the state. A mid-month blizzard and bitter cold marked the weather highlight of the month. Albany had record lows. Major activities: tending livestock, spreading manure, machinery repair and maintenance, grading and packing onions and apples, orchard clean-up, and preparing facilities for winter.