

January 31, 2011

NEW YORK: Snow, ice, and rain moved across the state as major storms and frigid temperatures crossed paths. Major activities included feeding livestock, spreading manure, grading and packing potatoes, onions, apples and cabbage. Winter meetings and trade shows were well attended.