

November 19, 2012

NEW YORK: Temperatures ranged from below freezing to the upper 60's. Midweek temperatures range from upper 40's to lows from 20's to 30's. Rain fell Monday night through Tuesday, dry remainder of the week. Corn for grain and soybean harvests continued when conditions permitted. Major activities: grading and packing onions, apples, potatoes; machinery repair and maintenance; preparing for winter; caring for livestock. Pasture condition seasonally declined.